CONSERVATORY

Technically speaking, the true definition of a conservatory incorporates internal separating doors between your home and your new living space, and over 75% of glass in the roof. But 'labels' aside, your conservatory can be whatever you want it to be.

We have a huge range of options to tailor your room, including swapping glass for a solid tiled roof or even a hybrid of tiled and glass for the perfect mix of light and warmth. And why not add French, sliding patio or bi-folding doors to your conservatory to really open out your living space in the summer months?

OPEN UP - Choose from a fabulous range of feature doors that will finish the look and open your conservatory to the garden.

GLAZING - Our high-performance glass not only works hard to ensure the room temperature is comfortable, but also adds style thanks to our range of colours.

LIGHTING - You can add light to your conservatory thanks to our clever internal and external features. The internal pelmet provides the perfect place for lighting or you can add patio lights to the outside within the external soffit.

ORANGERIES

Dating back to the 17th century, the original concept of the 'orangerie' was born in Italy and was seen as a true mark of wealth. Today, the same elegance shines through - our collection of stunning orangeries give you a world of opportunity to make your mark.

Match brick pillars to your home for a seamless look or add insulated columns for a modern finish. You'll still be able to incorporate plenty of glass so you don't lose that outside view, but with a little extra privacy and warmth for a more luxurious feel.

COMFORT - Insulated columns and pelmets will keep your room warm and comfortable whilst also offering a little extra privacy.

GLAZING - Choose from a range of intelligent glazing options that not only work to control the internal temperature but also include self-clean or easy-clean alternatives.

GLAZING STYLE

A PERFECT MATCH FOR YOUR HOME

A glass roof is the obvious choice if you want to fully appreciate a stunning view of the sky from your new living space. A glass roof will also minimise the noise impact of rain and hail versus an old traditional polycarbonate-style roof.

We're proud to offer a choice of tinted performance glass options for your glass roof, lantern, skylight or glazed rooflight – each with a unique mix of thermal control, light transmission, heat reflection and easy-clean properties. Our friendly team can help you select the right glazing for your needs.
